

---

---

WORLD

IN THE WOODS

THE LARGEST

NOTICE

We are the exclusive and only
Steinway & Sons, Weber, Har
We have an immense stock of Ebony, St. Domingo Mahogany, Cherry
An inspection of our instru
M. STEIN

East Fourth St.

73 E. Washing
INDIANAPOLIS.

son were married at the groom's residence, this city. A large number of invited guests were present....At Brownstown, Wednesday evening, Mr. D. M. Kain and Miss Anna Allen were married by Rev. W. N. Fletcher....On Thursday Mr. Henry Toppe and Miss Mary Stille, of Dudiertown, this county, were by making nature a silent partner in the daughter by Rev. F. H. Pohlman. Four hundred guests were present. The bride was Miss daughter, Miss Ida, w. F. Pfaffenberger, Mrs. W.

 P. Huffman and daughter, Miss Avis, and M1 a daughter, Miss Helen. The groom was the son of menagement. Mrs. Henry Niermeyer is visiting relatives at Cloverdale. Mrs. G. M. H
 Columbus, returned home Tuesday.
 Mrs. Helen McKinney, of Columbus, returned home on Monday.
 Mrs. Ed. J. W. Godfrey, last Tuesday. Miss Mattie Cobb and Lucy Hazelrigg, of Greensburg, returned home on Monday. Mrs. W. F. H Lucy Cobb. Mrs. G. H. Murphy spent Sunday with her sons, John and Charles, at Brownstown. Miss Ella J. Indianapolis, visited friends here during last week. Mrs. L. W. of the north. Mrs. J. W. of the north.
 menagement last week. where her niece, Miss Katie, recently graduated. At Browns town, Monday evening, Mr. Theodore J. and Mrs. L. W. of the north, married. Mr. Lynn Faulkner and wife spent a couple of days in Columbus. Mrs. J. W. of the north.
 visited Mrs. Mary Orrell at Columbus.
 Misses Minnie Garrison, Maggie Heuser, Oma and Mrs. J. W. of the north, visited Columbus last week, during the races. Miss Laura Zuber, of Indianapolis, returned Thursday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. W. of the north. Mrs. J. C. Bardin, of Caledonia, returned Thursday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. F.

beef, and with them several cups of coffee.

Chicago on an extended visit...Miss Lizzie Kline, of Flora, Ill., is visiting among friends here last Sunday...Mrs. Lizzie Bray, of Quincy, Ill., is visiting among friends and relatives...Mrs. J. D. Deane and family, Sanford, are visiting their parents...the Miss Fannie Sumner, of Los Angeles, Cal., is the guest of Mrs. D. C. Jones...Sarah Ellis, all of Kokomo, were the guests of J. A. Swoeland last Sunday...Mrs. Charles Anderson friends...Mrs. M. F. Lonk, of Lafayette, visited Mrs. W. L. Berryman last Wednesday.

Whewab.

Mrs. L. H. Fongeres is being entertained by friends in Chicago...Miss Jennie Markey, of Fort Wayne, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Deane and family, Sanford...The friends in Chicago...Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Daughman have returned from a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Gilbert has gone to LaPorte to spend several weeks with friends...Mrs. Ida Archey, of Kokomo, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Hartung...Miss Anna Hibben is at Fairmount with friends and relatives...Mr. and Mrs. Natt N. Antrim, of Ellettsburg, Ind., are visiting at the home of the past week...Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Duffy have returned from Hagerstown, Md....Mrs. Sanford, of Ellettsburg, Ind., is visiting at the home of Miss Jennie Hayden, of Princeton, Ind., was the guest of Miss Myrtle Ross the past week...The

A deal in a name.
Blubber is diagnosing oil if for use on a

Benjamin Oppenheim, of North Manchester, occurs Tuesday afternoon.

Winchester.

Benjamin Butler and wife, of Racine, Wis., were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harter, a few days last week. Harvey Broken and wife, of Fort Wayne, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith last Saturday. Misses Nannie and Bertha Johnson, and Minnie Coon, of Liberty, Ind., returned to their home Friday afternoon. J. H. Boltz and wife... John... of Winmore, of... formerly... this city, and Miss Moseille Whitaker, of Hephzibah, Ga., were married last week... Mr. Kennedy, wife and daughter, of Shelbyville, navaga in the brooks and salmon in the visited J. W. Thompson and while over supper.... of Harley Ruby.... Mrs. Ellen Godwin and Mrs. Berthena Nolan, of Anderson, were visiting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Thompson. A party in honor of Miss Sallie Rothenberger, of Sidney, O., was given at the home of Miss Anna Ho-gester, by Miss Helen Smith, of Chicago. Mrs.

Maggie Irvin.... Mrs. S. R. Wiggins and daughter, Mrs. Florence Lodwick, of Richmond, were week.... Mrs. Margaret Bowers, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. F. E. Goodrich.

THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

Champaign.

Orise Riley and wife visited in Chicago the past few days.... Mrs. A. Dunlap is a guest of Bloomington friends.... Miss Janet Abdl Tuttor, by Miss Helen Smith, of Chicago. At Danville.... Cards are out announcing the coming nuptials of Frederick Webber and Miss Amy Tuttor, by Miss Helen Smith, of Chicago. At thirty Tuesday evening.... Miss Etta Mathers, of Mason City, was a visitor in the city the past few days.... Mrs. J. W. Thompson and wife, of Alvin, are in the city.... Mrs. Nellie Maxwell could never say, with the least pride, that

State. — Mrs. H. D. Stoltzky is visiting in Pittsfield. — Mrs. Kate Sullivan has returned from a visit at Tuscola. Mrs. William Mazoon is the guest of friends at Huron, S. D. — Mrs. Julia M. Ralp is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Ralp on Wednesday. — Mrs. Millie Gray has returned to her home in Logansport. — Mrs. Grace Moss is spending her vacation at Villa Ridge. — Mrs. R. A. Rupp is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rupp. — Mrs. Grace Moss is visiting near Cairo. — Prof. H. F. Baker, of Belleury, Ind., is a guest of relatives in this city. — Mrs. Madge Wilcox is in Covington. — Mrs. H. B. Seymour, of Cambridge, is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rupp. — Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rupp, of Chicago, are visitors in Champain. — R. L. Freeman, of Brandon, was a guest recently of Mr. O. F. Spaulding. — Mrs. J. H. Rupp is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rupp. — Misses Maude Houseman and Gertrude Smith are on West. — Mrs. Grace Gill is home on vacation.

make their vows in the presence of fire and from Monticello Seminary. . . Mrs. Dr. Mills and children are visiting friends at Oberlin. . . Miss Mary Ann Dwyer has returned from a year's study in Germany and Bavaria. . . Mrs. Alice Wallace has returned to her home in California. . . Misses Marion and Emma Niles are home from Kemper Hall. . . Mrs. Thelma Naughton and daughter are guests of friends at Kenoia.

Charleston.

Mrs. Harley and sons are visiting in Peoria. . . Mrs. Wm. Armstrong is visiting in Urbana. . . Mrs. Wm. Armstrong is visiting in Urbana. . . Mrs. Belle Wright. . . Miss Nellie Marie, of Shelbyville, was the guest of Miss Marie Chambers the past week. . . Miss Anna Theaker will spend the week in Kentucky. . . Mrs. Geo. Harlow up from town on short visit recently. . . Elder J. G. Sawin and wife, of Loxa, have returned from a visit in Kentucky. . . Harman community. Nothing could cause more consternation among the peaceful inhab-

Miss Daisy Evans, of Alvin, is visiting in the city.... Mr. and Mrs. Mlt Terry, of Sidel, spent Thursday in the city.... Miss Stella Shoaf left the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shoaf.... Miss Mary Ann, of Chatham, is the guest of friends in the city.... Miss Sophie Androo left Thursday evening for Boston, Mass., to spend thing that happened to be in its path, thus leaving the roads leading to its top almost

[illegible]

Chicago Times.

from a three weeks' sojourn in North Carolina... Dr. L. Warren and family, of Manitou River, Florida, are visiting friends in this city... Miss Grace Huston has returned from several weeks' sojourn in Chicago... Mr. Albert Williamson and daughter, of Chicago, are visiting W. D. Cole and wife... Miss Jennie Judson, of Paint Lick, Ky., is visiting among friends here... Mrs. C. W. Powell, of Chicago, is visiting relatives here... Professor Brown, of Indianapolis, is the guest of Mrs. Kate

ERT & SONS CO.
on St., 153 West Fourth St., ND. CINCINNATI, O.

study. Miss Jessie Sheldley is home from Allenton, S. C., where she has been teaching in a school for some time. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Joak are returning to Chicago Saturday after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Joak's parents. Mr. John W. McKim, Indianapolis, is visiting here. Mr. George E. Levings, Miss Mame Elnley, and Miss Nellie Hill, all of the city, are bidding farewell to her many friends preparatory to departing for an extended European tour.

PETER'S MEAL.

The Diet of the Eskimo Not Another Candles.

Geographical Magazine.

I read about Eskimo eating habits—how, once upon a time, for instance, an Arctic explorer offered some Eskimo girls some sweet-meats, which were rejected, while yellow candles were eaten and accounted for. Now, I was to see an Eskimo eat. With many smiles Peter entered the cabin

Marshall. Misses Kate and Alice Burnside, of Indianapolis, spent a few days with their numerous relatives here. Miss Kate Burnside is a native of Terre Haute. She will visit in Indianapolis before returning home. Mrs. John Dunsun Green, of Louisville, Ky., returned home the first of the week from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Terre Haute. Mrs. William C. Casey, of Chicago, who visited in Terre Haute last week, returned to her home in Chicago. Mrs. William D. Hare and his wife, Mrs. Hare, of the Guilford Hotel, returned to their home in Terre Haute last week. Mrs. A. G. Blunk is visiting in Clayton, Ind. Miss Emma Kilborn has returned to her home in Westport, Ind.

Mattson. Miss Judy Weaver is in Decatur... Miss Julia Welsh spent last week in Ardena... Mrs. David Smith is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Tufts, in Urbana... Miss Helen Butterfield, of the University of Chicago, has been engaged to marry her teacher in the Mattson High-school... Miss Alice from Urbana is home from college... Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Madden and wife have returned from their trip to Europe.

from a visit in Indianapolis. . . . Miss Clara Perry told me that when she was a child she was teaching school. . . . Miss Beate Augusta, of Paris, is a guest of Mattson friends. . . . John and his children have returned to their home in Sedalia, Mo. . . . Elder J. M. Treu and family, of Kansas, Ill., visited Mattson friends the week before last. . . . Mr. J. B. Craig and wife of Chicago the past week. . . . Mrs. R. White is a guest of friends at Edgemoor.

Heredity.

There is nothing we cannot overcome.
Say not thy evil instinct is inherited.
Thy crafty labor makes thee whole.

forlorn
and call down punishment that is not merited.

lack of the parents and grandparents lies
The Great Eternal Will! That, too, is thine Inheritance, strong, beautiful, divine,
The sure of success for one who tries.

Try up thy faults with this great lever, Will
For deeper bedded in propound
However firmly set, I tell thee, firmer yet
Is that vast power that comes from truth
Innately.

That is the power of that strange word, Lever Innately.

them as the augmatist and to the learned as salmo villosus. A favorite way of saying that the dried augmatist is to take bit by the tail, poke it into the oily blubber for a while and then chew it down. Awful, isn't it? It is almost as bad as eating sardines. There is a deal in a name.

Blubber is disgusting; oil, if for use on a salad, is delicious. The augmatist has have eaten seal oil and found it (very unexpectedly) good. I had supposed it would have a flavor of fish oil. There is no such flavor about it. It is equal to the extract of cotton seed—that quality sold as "I don't care if this strange word is easy to pronounce, but I'll tell you, stranger Than all thy mortal sins and frailties are,

 Believe thyself divine, and watch and pray.
 There is no noble height thou canst not climb;
 If thou be thine in Jesus, thou shalt find Whatsoever thy fault thou dost not faint or whine."

But I'll rise upon the staff of God's security,
 And I'll be bold to say, I'll be true,
 Earth has no claim the soul cannot contest;
 Know thyself part of the Eternal Source,
 And naught can stand before thy spirit's force,
 The soul's divine inheritance is best.
 When William Wordsworth wrote "The Foxglove"
 The fox is the Eskimo that the 'possum

A Spray of Honeysuckle.
I broke, one day, a slender stem
Thick-set with little golden bells—
Half-bud, half-blossom; and a gem,
Such as one finds in autumn morn,
When all the grass with dew is strung,
On every fairy bugle hung.

I dropped it, careless, in a place
Where no light shone, and straight forgot;
Till, late, a deer, tooving grass,
Yet from the dark, neglected spot
Stole, unresenting, through the gloom,
And, with a gleam that gladden the room,
Heard the soft rustle of its velvet skin
As it came down the planty stem To the plantation darky. He likes to smoke, and, under favorable circumstances, will swap anything he's got, including wife, for rum.

THE GIANT TERROR.
Description of Kilaeua, the Largest Active Volcano in the World.
R. H. Taylor, in Washington Post.
Kilauea, the largest active volcano, which is situated about thirty-three miles from Hilo, has undergone a great change during

Whereas I thought, O heart of mine!
Reason for these plans to read
Thou needest not that light should shine,
Or any man thy beauty heed;
Enough—if I lay this be so—
That thou hadst sweetness to bestow.

—Mary Bradley, in Harper's Bazar.

The Glimpse.
Just for a day you crossed my life's dull track,
Put my ignoble dreams to sudden shame,
And in a brief way, and left me to my fate,
On my own world of poor dead and aim;

to fall back on my meager word, and feel Like one who, dwelling 'mid some smokedrummed town,
In a brief pause of labor's sullen heave,
'Scaped from the street's dead dust and factory's frown,
In stainless daylight saw the pure seas roll,
And the sun glazing the pillared shore;
Then journeyed home to carry in his soul
The torment of the difference till he die.
—William Watson
"This, Too, Will Pass Away."

We long for something in our sad pride,
Perhaps a bubble that may glitter brighter
Than all the world, and think it going right
For us to have; and though God may decide
That it is best that we should be denied,
And so our souls we think are blighted,
Impatient, cannot see it in His light,
And so we spend our lives unsatisfied.

In every life there must be light and shade,
And sorrow and joy, as in the day;
Will shine as in the sun, a quenchless spark,
Emblem of hope whose lights shall never fade,
And so our souls we think are blighted,
Impatient, cannot see it in His light,
And so we spend our lives unsatisfied.

—Henry Coyle.

To the Winds of June.

Blow gently, Winds of June! Each downy nest
Is full of unsung songs and unspread wings
That wait to put in June the first of June Soft rockings until the rustic cradles best.

Blow gently, Winds of June! The bud is here
That soon will be transformed into the rose,
The sweetest and the fairest of June's flowers,
A breath might mar the beauty of the year.

So easily the song drops out of tune,
So easily the sun absorbs the dew,
That all the things that are so good and true
Are gone before we know it is all over.

—Henry Coyle.

time, as if unsettled as to its next action.

Much fear is entertained by the inhabitants of southeastern Hawaï as to the probabilities of this great mass of lava bursting out of the sides of the mountain, and thus carrying certain destruction to the entire community. Nothing could cause more consternation among the peaceful inhabitants of this beautiful land than for the silent hours of night to be interrupted by such a terrible explosion as would follow the breaking out of this mass of uncontrollable destruction.

This lake overflows its banks some time

So quickly does the rose its petals lose,
That, for their sake alone, gently W. is of June!
—Mary A. Mason, in St. Nicholas.

"Cranberry Troff" Barred.

Washington Post.
"What's dished?" said Simpson Doodlist, as he looked across the table where a little game was in progress.
"What an' what?" asked Jackson Smiles.
"Er' munit eeg yoh done had nuffin' but white an' red chips, an' now yoh done got blue an' green in yer pocket," stammered Simpson Doodlist.

since, and the burning lava ran down the mountain sides to the sea for a distance of over thirty miles, and destroyed everything that happened to be in its path, thus leaving the roads leading to its top almost impassable, and in such a rough condition that a trip over these roads can never be remembered by those making the same.

Women Do Not Steal.

Helena Journal.
In New York a great many women hold positions of trust as cashiers and book-

Jackson. "I am not poor, exhausted keepers where large sums of money are constantly left in their care. Warrants of each day contain accounts of defalcation and embezzlement by men in like positions of trust; there does not appear to be a case on record of a woman who has proved unfaithful to her employer. There is no wonder, then, that women are taking precedence over men for positions of moral responsibility."

Making Nature a Silent Extremist.
Philadelphia Record.

Chancellor Snow, of Kansas University, who was laughed at by the newspapers two years ago for his claim of having discovered a way of exterminating chinchbugs by

Klaine Goodale's Advantage.
Chicago Times.

A good deal of light talk is wasted over inoculating them with germs of a fatal disease, is having his laugh now at his detractors. The late Legislature of his State voted him $3,500 to continue his investigations, and it is said that he has done so to such purpose that the bugs are dying off in large numbers. Should this mean of fight-

Miss Elaine Goodale's approaching marriage with Dr. Eastman, the Sioux Indian. It should be remembered that Dr. Eastman is civilized, and in that fact Miss Goodale has the decided advantage over young women who marry New York dudes and other lily-white savages.